

Call for Self-Directed Leaders

ARIZONA GLOBAL DEVELOPMENT NETWORK
sustainably and responsibly collaborating to create international change

If you have a passion for international development, humanitarian aid, and international affairs- WE WANT YOU. Consider volunteering for the Arizona Global Development Network's Program Development Committee (PDC), a newly formed group of skilled, early-career leaders and social justice advocates. As a member of the PDC you will be a part of a global network of organizations in Phoenix. You'll have access to AGDN members representing a cross-sector of international development organizations working across the globe.

Responsibilities

- Develop and implement AGDN initiatives and activities including general meetings, guest presentations, communications, etc.
- Lead efforts to expand AGDN membership, nurture collaborations, and generate awareness about AGDN.
- Attend PDC meetings and related Network events; estimated volunteer time commitment is 8 hours per month.

Qualifications

- Must be a working professional with at least 3 years of experience.
- Demonstrated skill or interest in international development, humanitarian aid, and/or international affairs.
- Excellent written and oral communication skills.
- Must be diligent, self-driven and demonstrate initiative.

To apply, please submit an interest form at this link: <https://forms.gle/qUWtJpWmtPLaMLw69>

If you have questions, contact Anna Ortiz via email: anna@esperanca.org

WHAT IS THE ARIZONA GLOBAL DEVELOPMENT NETWORK?

The Arizona Global Development Network (AGDN) is a network of Arizona-based international development organizations and individuals whose aim is to increase global impact through networking, innovative collaborations, and collective problem-solving.

AGDN was founded in 2019 by Esperança and has grown its membership to include organizations across various sectors and global regions.